| 1. | On your mobile device, download the library app called Libby or Libby                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2  | Open the App and find where you can add your City Library Card number. On the iPad it is at the bottom of the home page or behind the little face in the top right corner.                   |                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 3  | Sign into the British Columbia Libraries and scroll down to North Vancouver City Library or North Vancouver District Public Library (depending on where you have a card registered)          | *If you don't have a library card, you can get one by going to their website. City library: Click here or call 604-998-3450District Library: Call 604-987-4471(Capilano Branch)                                            |
| 4. | Enter your library card number and your PIN number. Usually your PIN number is the last 4 digits of your phone number.                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 5. | Once you have signed in, you can set preferences for the kinds of books that appear. For children, we recommend setting the 'audience' to Juvenile. You can select more than one preference. |  When you find an audiobook or ebook you want to try, click on the title and click BORROW.Now Download it to your device to read or listen OFFLINE. ☁️ |
| 6. | Now you explore titles both in Audiobook and ebook format and download them to any device where the app is loaded.                                                                           | On a laptop computer, click Here to go directly to the BC Library 2 Go Site (https://bcpl.overdrive.com/) and you can Sign in there with your library card number.                                    |
